Back by popular demand this summer: Montalvo’s nighttime summer arts festival inspired by mankind’s abiding fascination with the skies and beyond. Starry, Starry Night celebrates STEAM-based learning, brings the community together, and reaffirms Montalvo’s commitment to engage the public in the creative process. We anticipate 300+ guests at this event.

Montalvo’s Education Department has crafted a schedule full of imaginative interdisciplinary activities appropriate for the whole family:

Cosmic Art-Making Activites
- Make and install your own glow-in-the dark constellation installation
- Design a space colony or intergalactic rocket
- Paint and draw your own imaginative nighttime scenes, inspired by famous works by artists like Van Gogh, Hopper, Magritte and more!

Astronomy Education
- Stargaze with telescopes installed on the Great Lawn
- Learn about constellations at the pop-up planetarium installed in the historic Villa, providing astronomy shows throughout the evening
- See artwork created by students during the week’s Summer Camps

Imagination Sparked by the Skies
- Be transported by star-inspired poetry and storytelling
- Come away on a contemplative night hike across the property
- Enjoy a nighttime screening of family-friendly films from outer space!

A Night Spent Under the Stars
- If you like, you and your family spend the night out on the Great Lawn and wake up to a delicious pancake breakfast (note: tents permitted without stakes, and staying over night is optional)
